Subject: Letter of Appreciation to Thai Airways International

Recently, due to the current outbreak of coronavirus disease (COVID-19) in China, the aviation industry has been affected significantly and the some flight operating to China have been reduced.

Under such circumstances, we note the Thai Airways International has arranged specially the charter flight to deliver medical products for disease prevention and control. On behalf of CNAF, we highly appreciate Thai Airways International's efforts to support China, and Thai Airways International is one of our valuable partners who stand with us to fight together in this situation.

We hope that the situation will complete soon, and normal operation could be resumed. Again, thank you very much for your efforts.

Best regards,

China National Aviation Fuel Supply Co. Ltd
