Subject : The case which the Company was alleged for the violation of the Commerce Act 1986 in New Zealand

To : President,
The Stock Exchange of Thailand

With respect to the investigation by the New Zealand Commerce Commission (NZCC), the NZCC has subsequently filed a lawsuit against the Company alleging that the Company together with other 13 airlines violated the Commerce Act 1986. However, the amount of fines and expenses had not yet been specified. After that, the Company entered into a settlement negotiation with the NZCC and on 22 April 2013, the court in New Zealand rendered a judgment pursuant to the settlement made between the Company and the NZCC. The court permitted the Company to pay the pecuniary penalty of NZD 2.7 million and pay the NZCC's legal costs to these proceedings in the sum of NZD 259,079.18, totaling NZD 2,959,079.18 (Two Million Nine Hundred Fifty-nine Thousand and Seventy-nine New Zealand Dollars and Eighteen Cents). Such pecuniary penalty can be paid in 4 installments during a period of 18 months. In addition, the Company has already set a reserve in this respect which covers the amount of the settlement with the NZCC.

Furthermore, most of the airlines that had been investigated similar to the Company, have also entered into settlement negotiations with the NZCC in the same manners.

This matter is being reported for your information.

Yours sincerely,

Suvimol Bualerd
Vice President, Corporate Secretariat
