To : President,
The Stock Exchange of Thailand

Thai Airways International Public Company Limited (“the Company”) would like to inform of a significant litigation as follows:

There has been a class action case in the Netherlands, Amsterdam but the Company is not a party to the main proceedings. In this case, on 24 December 2013, the plaintiff filed a lawsuit against Koninklijke Luchtvaart Maatschappij N.V., Martin Air Holland N.V., Societe Air France S.A. (collectively referred to as “KLM-AF”), Deutsche Lufthansa and Lufthansa Cargo A.G. (collectively referred to as “Lufthansa”), Singapore Airlines and Singapore Airlines Cargo (collectively referred to as “Singapore Airlines”) and British Airways alleging surcharges fixing among such airlines. On 25 June 2014, such airlines requested that the court give them leave to implead other airlines involving in surcharges fixing arrangement. After that, on 25 March 2015, the court granted permission according to such airlines’ request. In July 2015, the writs of summons issued by British Airways, Lufthansa and KLM-AF have been served to the Company. In this regard, the writs of summons have been served to the Company and more than other 20 airlines. The Company is currently preparing to attend the first hearing.

This matter is being reported for your information.

Yours sincerely,
